Dear Max:

It is too bad we have to face these situations that I do appreciate the thorough manner in which you handle them. I think I told you before that decisions are difficult to make when we receive applications for registrations and have no real information in our file. When we have as much as you have submitted, there should never be a question in anyone's mind about our procedure. Thanks again.

Now, if you will complete the confidential record sheets so that we will be able to identify them, the file will be complete.

Sincerely yours,

Personal and Confidential

Dear Basil:

Here is another one of the ugly situations we have to face from time to time.

We have been trying to get something on this man for some time, and finally the right set of circumstances have come into focus.

Attached is a copy of the letter from the county attorney of Harvey County and the affidavits of the confessions of these two men.

This is a very complete statement and should give you all the information you need to see that these men are placed on the confidential list. If you need any further information, please write me.

Very sincerely yours,

Max

Mr. Max Hatfield, Scout Executive

Dear Mr. Hatfield:

This office undertook to investigate the activities of one Robert L. Hillard, Scout Master of Troop No. 150, and Mr. Kenneth Welsh, a member of Troop No. 150. This investigation was commenced upon the complaint of Mr. [REDACTED], who has a son [REDACTED] who at one time belonged to Troop 150.

The complaint indicated that Mr. Hillard and Mr. Welsh were engaging in acts of perversion with several of the boys in the Troop and that these acts were taking place regularly and during outings, camps, trips, and parties, all within the scouting program of this particular troop. Our information indicated that Mr. Hillard would take one or two of these scouts with him on special trips and while on such trips engage in acts of perversion; and that during all-night parties at his house, he would take one boy at a time into his bedroom for purposes of immoral acts. Our investigation further indicated that some ten boys were involved with Mr. Hillard and at least two boys were involved with Mr. Welsh.

Both Mr. Hillard and Mr. Welsh were arrested and brought to this office for investigation on May 31, 1961; and after prolonged questioning, admitted various acts of perversion with the boys in the scout troop. Mr. Welsh stated to us that he has not engaged in this behavior during the past year; and Mr. Hillard indicated to us that as recently as two weeks ago, he engaged in an act of perversion at an outing in Sedgwick, Kansas.

After the complete admissions of these two persons, I came to the decision that to openly prosecute would cause great harm to the reputations of two organizations which we have involved here--the Boy Scouts of America and the local Y.M.C.A., as well as damage the reputations of at least two churches. I felt then and do now feel that the price which the community would have to pay for the punishment of these two individuals would be too great, in view of the fact that the damage thusly done to these organizations would be serious and lasting.

For that reason, I have required of both Mr. Hillard and Mr. Welsh that they sever all connections with the Boy Scouts of America, the Y.M.C.A., and any other organization which would involve young boys; and have further required that they submit to psychiatric treatment and that the reports of this treatment be submitted to this office. Both Mr. Hillard and Mr. Welsh have submitted Affidavits admitting the charges as levied against them and severing their connections with the organizations involved. I enclose herewith for your information copies of such Affidavits.

This entire investigation was undertaken with the co-operation of Mr. Heckler, the District Scout Executive; and I have informed him of the progress and of the conclusions reached at this time. He suggested that I write to you disclosing the result of this investigation so that you may take the necessary steps to include these two individuals in the national file of perverts.

If I can be of any further help to you in this matter, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Sincerely yours,

County Attorney of Harvey County
